Establishment of the National Statistical Institute

3. There is hereby established a body to be known as the National Statistical Institute of [Country] which shall be a body corporate.

Functions of the Institute

4. The functions of the Institute are:

(a) to collect, compile, analyse and publish official statistics;

(b) to carry out such censuses and surveys in relation to the subjects listed in the First Schedule as may be necessary from time to time for the purposes of paragraph (a) above;

(c) to formulate, and ensure compliance with, standards for statistical purposes;

(d) to collaborate with individuals, firms, partnerships, associations, unincorporated bodies, companies, corporations, ministries, departments and agencies of Government in the collection, compilation and publication of statistics;
(e) to promote, develop and maintain an integrated statistical system in [Country]; and

(f) to liaise with other countries and regional and international organizations in relation to statistical matters.

5. The powers of the Institute shall be vested in the Board.

(1) The powers of the Institute shall be vested in the Board.

(2) The Board shall consist of not less than nine and no more than fifteen other members as the [Head of State], having consulted with the Minister and organizations representing groups of statistical units, may by instrument in writing appoint.

(3) The [Head of State] shall appoint one of the members to be Chairman.

(4) The term of office of any member shall be for such period not exceeding three years as the [Head of State] may direct in the instrument appointing such member. Any such member shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(5) There shall be paid to the Chairman and the other members such remuneration as the Minister may determine.

(6) The [Head of State] may, on the application of any member, grant leave of absence to such member.

(7) The [Head of State] may, in case of the absence or inability of any member to perform his duties, appoint any person to act temporarily in place of such member.

(8) The [Head of State] may terminate the appointment of any member if such member -

(a) resigns his office by instrument in writing addressed to the [Head of State];

(b) becomes incapable of performing his duties under this Act;

(c) is sentenced to a term of imprisonment;

(d) is guilty of gross misconduct;

(e) engages in activities prejudicial to the interests of the Institute; or

(f) fails, without reasonable excuse, to carry out his duties under this Act.
(9) The appointment, removal or resignation of any member shall be notified in the Gazette.

(10) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Board shall have power for the purpose of execution of its duties and the discharge of its functions to:

(a) carry on all activities which appears to it to be requisite, advantageous or convenient for or in connection with the conduct of its duties and functions;

(b) do anything and to enter any transaction which in its opinion is essential to facilitate the proper conduct of its duties and functions or is incidental or conducive thereto.

(11) The seal of the Institute shall be kept in the custody of the Secretary to the Board, or by any officer of the Institute authorized by the Chairman and shall be affixed to instruments pursuant to a resolution of the Board in the presence of the Chairman, or any member authorized to act in that behalf, and the Secretary. The seal shall be authenticated by the signature of the Secretary.

(12) The Board shall meet as often as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of its business and such meetings shall be held at such places and times and on such days as the Chairman may determine.

(13) The quorum of the Board shall be a majority of its members and for meeting purposes Board Members must be physically present at the Meeting but decision-making could be done by circular resolution

(14) The decisions of the Board shall be by a majority of votes and, in addition to an original vote, the Chairman or other member presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in any case in which the voting is equal.

(15) The funds and resources of the Institute shall consist of –

(a) such sums as may from time to time be appropriated by Parliament and which should be adequate for the functioning of the Institute; and

(b) all other moneys and other property which may in any manner become payable to or vested in the Institute in respect of any matter incidental to its functions.

(16) The Institute should be exempt from all taxes and stamp duty
Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own proceedings.

No action, suit, prosecution or other proceedings shall be brought or instituted personally against any member in respect of any act done bona fide in the execution or intended execution of this Act.

6. (1) The [Head of State] [Board] [Minister] shall appoint a Chief Executive Officer of the Institute for a period not exceeding five years on terms and conditions approved by the Minister. The appointment of the Chief Executive Officer may be renewable.

(2) The [Head of State] [Board] [Minister] may terminate the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer if he –

(a) resigns his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Chairman;

(b) becomes incapable of performing his duties under this Act;

(c) is sentenced to a term of imprisonment;

(d) is guilty of gross misconduct;

(e) engages in activities prejudicial to the interests of the Institute; or

(f) fails, without reasonable excuse, to carry out his duties under this Act.

7. (1) The Chief Executive Officer shall be in charge of the day-to-day management and operation of the Institute and shall be a member of the Board.

(2) The Chief Executive may, for the purpose of the performance of any of his functions, employ such persons in addition to the staff of the Institute as he may consider necessary for the particular purpose.

8. (1) The Board may appoint advisory committees to advise the Institute on matters related to its functions.

(2) The terms and conditions of the appointment of any advisory committees shall be determined by the Board.

9. (1) The Chief Executive Officer, or a person acting on his behalf, shall give notice, in respect of any one or more in the matter specified in the First Schedule, require any person by public notice –
(a) to furnish in the form and manner and within the time specified, such periodical or other information, estimates or returns, as may be specified; and

(b) to provide particulars –

(i) at a personal interview; or

(ii) by telephone or electronic transmission; or

(iii) in such other form and manner and within the time specified in the notice.

(2) A notice referred to in subsection (1) shall state –

(a) that it is in the exercise of the powers conferred upon the Chief Executive Officer by that subsection; and

(b) the purpose for which the information, estimates, returns or particulars are required.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any law enjoining secrecy, any person having the custody or charge of any records or documents that are maintained by any firm, partnership, association, unincorporated body, corporation, or any ministry, department and agency of Government, or –

(a) from which information is sought in furtherance of purposes of this Act may, in the opinion of the Chief Executive Officer, be obtained; or

(b) which, in the opinion of the Chief Executive Officer, will aid in the completion or correction of information already obtained, shall grant to the Chief Executive Officer, or a person acting in his behalf, access to such records or documents for the purpose of obtaining therefrom the required information and shall furnish the Chief Executive Officer, or a person acting in his behalf, with copies of any such records or documents if so required.

(4) The data collected in accordance with the provisions sub-section (3) hereof are to be used for statistical purposes only.

(5) This Act shall supersede any other legislation and/or regulation with respect to the collection of data for statistical purposes.
10. (1) Except as otherwise provided, a notice required or authorized by this Act to be served on any person may be served either –

(a) by publishing it in the Gazette; or

(b) by publishing it in the electronic and/or print media including the website of the Institute.

11. (1) The Chief Executive Officer may, by notice published in the Gazette and once a week for two weeks and/or in a newspaper printed and circulating in [Country], specify a class of undertakings in relation to which returns will be required for the purposes of this Act.

(2) In the case of continuous data collection activities, the frequency of publication of the notice shall be at least once a year.

Where pursuant to subsection (1) the Chief Executive Officer publishes such a notice, any person who is carrying on an undertaking of the class specified in the notice shall, within the time specified in the notice, inform the Chief Executive Officer that he is carrying on such an undertaking and shall give to the Chief Executive Officer such information or particulars of the undertaking as may be specified in that notice.

12. Any person employed in the exercise of any power or the performance of any duty under this Act, including any additional staff employed by the Chief Executive Officer pursuant to section 7(2), shall, before assuming his duties, take the oath or make the affirmation set out in the Second Schedule.

13. Subject to the provisions of this Act -

(a) no person, other than a person who is employed under this Act and who has taken the oath or made the affirmation under section 12, shall be permitted to examine any information provided under sections 9 to 11 of this Act; and

(b) no person shall disclose or knowingly cause to be disclosed, by any means, any information obtained under this Act in such a manner that it is possible from the disclosure to relate the information obtained under sections 9 to 11 to an identifiable person.

14. (1) The Chief Executive Officer may authorize the disclosure of the following information –

(a) information relating to a person, other than a person providing services as a carrier or a public utility, in respect of which disclosure
